

Saucon Valley Cross Country Course

Edward Kolosky developed this 3.1-mile course in the Fall of 1999.

This course was designed to be "spectator friendly". Sitting on the right side (facing the field) of the football stadium bleacher spectators can see about 80% of the race.